

Stunning unfurnished 1930's split level warehouse apartment with City views. Can also be offered furnished.

Originally built in 1930 as the Readers Digest Building then converted in the late 1980's into large warehouse apartments, these apartments were truly ahead of their time. Offering a bright super-sized living space and an ultra-convenient location this home will appeal to those wanting to embrace Inner City Warehouse Living.

- Very large open plan living and dining
- Renovated stainless steel chefs kitchen
- Timber floors throughout
- Super high ceilings, loads of storage
- Sleek modern bathroom with laundry facilities
- Across from Stanley Street eateries and a short walk through the Hyde Park to the City.
